

A Constitution for Druid Camp

A small unincorporated association

1. Name

The name of the group shall be Druid Camp

2. Aims

The aims of Druid Camp will be:

- To hold an annual gathering for Druids and those interested in Druidry.

3. Membership

Membership is made up of:

- Druid Camp Officers, being the sole Voting Members
 - Chair (as of 2018, Mark Graham)
 - Secretary (as of 2018, Mark Rosher)
 - Treasurer (as of 2018, Ester Hickey)
- Druid Camp Facilitators
 - As agreed in writing by the Officers of Druid Camp, being Advisory Members
- Druid Camp Ticketed Attendees
 - Membership begins on purchase of a Druid Camp ticket for the appropriate year and ceases at the end of that year's event.
- A list of all Members will be kept by the Secretary, and this information will be held securely and solely for the purpose of Druid Camp.
- Ceasing to be a member
 - Extra to the Membership criteria already identified above, Members may resign at any time by writing to the Membership Secretary.
 - Any Officer not attending an appropriately called meeting without apology will be contacted by the Chair and asked if they wish to resign. In the lack of a response, their resignation will be assumed and accepted.
 - Any Officer may call a vote of no confidence in any other Officer or Facilitator, upon which a decision is made as detailed below.
 - Any Membership may be terminated at the discretion of the Druid Camp Officers for reasons of racist, sexist, ableist or other inflammatory remarks with any monies paid for Membership not refunded. In such an event a right of reply will be granted at an appropriate time convenient to all parties.

4. Equal Opportunities

- Druid Camp will not discriminate on the grounds of gender, race, colour, ethnic or national origin, sexuality, gender identification, disability, religious or political belief, marital status or age excepting where the law or common sense requires it.

5. Meetings and Roles

- The officers' roles are as follows:
 - Chair, who shall chair both general and committee meetings
 - Secretary, who shall be responsible for ensuring minutes of meetings are taken and distributed appropriately.
 - Treasurer who shall be responsible for maintaining accounts.
 - In the event of an Officer standing down during the year a replacement will be elected by the remaining Officers
- The business of the group is carried out in three ways:
 - Planning and preparation for the event.
 - The actual Druid Camp event
 - Post-camp Annual General Meeting
- In as far as Druid Camp is made up of geographically disparate persons, the planning and preparation is carried out using whatever face-to-face, online and email discussions are deemed most reasonable.
- The Annual General Meeting shall take place immediately following the closing ceremony of that year's Druid Camp and will take place on the event site. All Members present are entitled to speak, but decisions rest with the voting Officers as previously stated.
- At the AGM
 - The Chair will present a post-camp de-brief will report on the camp just finished, any serious developments during the camp, the number of tickets sold and the total attendance figure.
 - The Treasurer will present a draft accounting, to be followed up by a written report within three months.
 - Discussions will take place that form the basis of the next year's Druid Camp
- The Secretary will call a Special General Meeting at the request of the majority of the Officers giving a written request to the Chair or Secretary stating the reason for their request.
 - The meeting will take place within twenty-one days of the request.
 - All members will be given two weeks notice of such a meeting, giving the venue, date, time and agenda, and notice may be by telephone, email or post.
 - The quorum for the Special General Meeting will be not less than three Officers

7. Rules of Procedure for meetings

- All questions that arise at any meeting will be discussed openly and the meeting will seek to find general agreement that everyone present can agree to.
- In the event of disagreement, decisions are made by Officers' votes, with the final decision resting with the Officers who each hold one vote and the Chair holding an additional and casting vote.

8. Finances

- An account will be maintained on behalf of the Association at a bank agreed by the Officers.
- Use of and signatory rights to the account will be determined by the Officers and recorded in Minutes.
- A full itemised statement will be circulated to Officers by the Treasurer on a monthly basis
- All money raised by or on behalf of Druid Camp is only to be used to further the aims of the group, as specified in item 2 of this constitution.

9. Amendments to the Constitution

- Amendments to the constitution may only be made at the Annual General Meeting or a Special General Meeting.
- Any proposal to amend the constitution must be given to the Secretary in writing and circulated to all Officers at least two weeks prior to an AGM or as detailed for Special General Meetings.
- Decisions to amend the Constitution are made by consensus between Officers or as detailed above.

10. Dissolution

- If a meeting of Officers, by simple majority, decides that it is necessary to close down the group it may call a Special General Meeting to do so. The sole business of this meeting will be to dissolve the group.
- If it is agreed to dissolve the group, all remaining money and other assets, once outstanding debts have been paid, will be donated to a suitable charitable organisation.
- The organisation will be agreed at the meeting which agrees the dissolution.

This constitution was agreed at the Inaugural Special Meeting of the Druid Camp Group on:-
